

Global Governance in the Era of Crises – is Decent Capitalism possible?

FES Geneva, ILO-ACTRAV, GLU
Geneva, Switzerland

Welcome Centre Geneva International
106, Route de Ferney
Grand Saconnex-Genève

Keynesian approaches are back according to prominent authors such as Paul Krugman, Dani Rodrik, Joe Stiglitz and Jayati Ghosh as well as recent ILO and UNCTAD readers and reports. German contributions include Heiner Flassbeck's "market economy of the 21st century" and the english edition of "Guter Kapitalismus" (decent capitalism) by Sebastian Dullien, Hansjörg Herr and Christian Kellermann. This workshop intends to critically review among a small group of mostly Geneva based economists (a) the core arguments and (b) major policy implications of "decent capitalism".
