Mainstreaming Development in the WTO
Developing countries in the Doha Round
Author: Faizel Ismail

Since the labelling of the Doha Round as a “Development Round” there has been an extensive public debate about what the “development dimension” would mean in the WTO context. Faizel Ismail’s book gives new impetus to this ongoing discussion by connecting academic research and negotiating experience. It was characterized by Pradeep S. Mehta, Secretary General of CUTS International, as a “must-read for those having a stake in international trade”.
