

May 11, 2009

6 pm - 8 pm

UN Headquarters, Conference Room 6

The inter-related crises of food, jobs, finance and climate call for A Global New Deal on Agriculture

The side event will provide with an overview of

- Challenges and policy options available for moving towards a more sustainable agricultural system
- Initiatives for reinforcing the social dimension in environmental decision making at the international, regional and local level

Introducing
“A Recipe for Hunger,
How the World is Failing on Food”
An ITUC report on the Food Crisis

Key note speakers:

- Joel Decaillon,
Confederal Secretary ETUC and President of Sustainlabour
- Walter D. Daryle,
UN High Level Task Force on the Global Food Security Crisis
- Angela Lomosi, International Trade Union Confederation Africa
- Anabella Rosemberg, Policy Officer, ITUC
- Laura Martín, Director, Sustainlabour

Moderated by:

Werner Puschra,
Director, Friedrich Ebert Stiftung New York Office

Questions and answers

Organized by:

Sustainlabour

In partnership with

FRIEDRICH
EBERT
STIFTUNG

This side event is organized under
UNEP/Sustainlabour Labour &
Environment Programme, supported by the Spanish Government.